

MICHELLE ELIA-SILOATA
NZ PRIME MINISTER SCHOLAR
TO ASIA 2018

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION EXCHANGE

Zhangye, Gansu Province

- 214,000 population, I was the only foreigner! Lived here 2 years.
- Shandan Bailie School, founded by NZer Rewi Alley in 1944
- This was a form of educational exchange – I learnt more than I taught.
- 2 years assimilated into the Chinese culture set the scene for the Prime Minister's Scholarship

Suzhou, Jiangsu Province

- 5 or 6 students based in China of the NZ Prime Minister Scholars
- 4mil population, a ton of foreigners. Lived here 6 months.
- Mandarin House, internationally renown language school
- Currently studying HSK Level 5 after 6 months, highest level is HSK 6

ZHANGYE, GANSU PROVINCE

SUZHOU, JIANGSU PROVINCE

2018美大地区友好论坛
2018 Friendship Forum
共建海上丝绸之路 共促地区开放发展
Building Maritime Silkroad, Promoting Common Development

2018年11月23日 中国·海南
November 23, 2018 Hainan, China

FRIENDSHIP SOCIETIES ACROSS CULTURES

- Partnerships with the Chinese Peoples Association for Friendships with Foreign Countries (CPAFFC) in Beijing
- CPAFFC aim is to promote friendship and mutual understanding between Chinese people and foreign nations
- Tours, conferences, exchange visits, commemorative activities
- Really a way to bridge any gaps of misunderstanding between China and foreign countries

IMPORTANCE OF SISTER CITY RELATIONSHIPS

- Understanding, understanding, and more understanding!
- Promotes and fosters mutual exchanges between two cities
 - Education wise, not just an academic exchange, but it really is a social exchange
- “Try things palagi, not so you may become palagi, but so you may see the value of things Samoan” – Identity, Tate Simi

FUTURE OF EXCHANGE A YOUTH PERSPECTIVE

- We are the ancestors of tomorrow
- Increased opportunities for our indigenous youth all over the Pacific to experience exchange
- We, as youth, also need to be proactive and meet the opportunities halfway

MANUIA LAU MALAGA,
谢谢大家!
THANK YOU FOR LISTENING!